Introduction

ANGLONG EXIM Pvt Ltd, founded by Jelina Engtipi, is dedicated to providing high-quality organic agricultural products sourced directly from the pristine hills of Karbi Anglong. Our commitment to sustainability and health is reflected in every product we offer, ensuring that our customers receive the freshest and healthiest options available. With a focus on organic farming practices, we work closely with local farmers to bring you produce that is free from harmful chemicals and rich in natural goodness.

Our Mission

Our mission is to promote a healthier lifestyle through the consumption of organic products that are as fresh as the hills they come from. At ANGLONG EXIM, we believe that staying fresh and healthy should be simple and accessible to everyone.
